PRESIDENTS CORNER

Well, it looks like spring has sprung! It's a time to open up the pool, put the boat in the water, and get ready for those back yard BBQ's. And it's also a time when the PVD airspace starts getting busier with weekend pilots heading out to the Vineyard, Block Island, Cape Cod, and other places of leisure. It's a good time to pay extra attention looking out the window for air traffic, especially if you don't have a "fishfinder"! Do something nice, and make it a habit to bring someone along who has never experienced the joy of general aviation.

I want to thank Beth Tetreault for taking the lead organizing the PVD tower tour and dinner, which will be held at the Federal Tavern in the PVD air terminal. Make sure that you bring a photo ID, and for some reason the tour is restricted to UScitizens. I guess that's a politically correct way of keeping terrorists out of the tower,

The tour will start at 5:30pm, so get there early so we can start dinner promptly at 7pm. Parking will be validated in the terminal short-term lot.

HANGAR FLYING

Weekend Flying

The "SFZ Fly to Lunch Bunch" was still active in the month of April even though springtime brings windy and rainy days to New England. I think most of you would say we had more than our fair share of rain this year! We did manage to get to Block Island and Fitchburg last month to meet and eat with our little group.

My favorite flight last month was to Nantucket to attend the Annual Daffodil Festival on Saturday, April 24th. Unfortunately, that event fell on the same day that we at SFZ have a monthly FAA Safety Seminar, which I like to attend but Nantucket won the decision because it was such a nice day for flying.

On the way out to ACK we ended up in a twenty minute hold on the west side of the island with about ten other inbound aircraft because of a Lancair (I think) went off runway 24 about two thirds of the way down and collapsed his nose gear and ended up with a custom bent propeller. This naturally closed the airport for a while. After reopening runway 33, I had to give the tower controller a thumbs-up on a nice job coordinating all the inbound traffic. At least Jan and I had a nice day on Nantucket.

Some of the seasonal airport restaurants are reopening and we are looking forward to paying them a visit. Don't be shy; you're more than welcome to join us.

NOTAMS

AERO CLUB OF NEW ENGLAND

Today Beth Tetreault and I went to the ACONe annual meeting at which ACONe makes the New England States annual awards. Adrien was the Rhode Island award person for this year. Frank Sherman.

On April 23rd, Adrien Desillier was awarded the Aero Club of New England's 2010 Rhode Island Award for his long-standing service to general aviation. Adrien first flew at Wilkins Airport in N. Attleboro 50 years ago. He started flying for Skylanes out of North Central in 1970 and has been at that airport ever since. Initially he flew 'midnight charters' when he got his commercial with Sabbie Ludovici and then transitioned to instructing when he got his CFI and CFII in 1972. He has over 10,000 hours and is currently instructing for Cindtronix. He is active with Young Eagles. Significantly, no one that he has instructed has ever failed a flight test or a written. Don Pillsbury

BOARD MEETING

Dan Scanlon, Beth Tetreault, Rene Cardon and Marilyn Biagetti made it to the office for the meeting. Bill Weedon sat on route 95 waiting for an accident to be cleared. Luckily we had the cell phones so we could keep Bill informed.

Our priority was the tower tour. Beth managed to get all the arrangements coordinated so it was mainly a review.

Rene had a catalog for the jackets that will be available for members. Members interested can choose from 2 or 3 styles that were selected.

Bill arrived as we were closing the door and he joined us at the restaurant for a briefing.

eMAIL BAG

Dear RIPA Thanks to Rhode Island Pilot Association my dream was easier to achieve. Thank you for your support with the scholarship during the process of getting my Privet Pilot License. I am so proud to tell you that my dream became true on January 21. I had my check ride scheduled in Horizon Aviation. I took my final FAA Practical Exam in North Central in Rhode island. Everybody was cheering for me when i was taking my practical exam.

Since 2007 i had time to think and came to conclusion that flying is not just something i would like to do in my free time. Flying is something i would like to do on everyday basis. Since January i am enrolled in IFR ground training (Instrument rating to allow me to fly in the clouds) and Commercial ground training (which is all looking like jacked-up Private Pilot license... haha.0 In 6 weeks i am staring my IFR flight training with Eagle-East Aviation in North Andover.

Life is rolling and i am loving it. Now i feel like i finally got my wings. My everyday life is full of exciting trips. Where ever i go i meet new people from all over the world. Recently i met Joe the owner of Joe's caffee in LWM Massachusetts who is Lebanese and i find out all about his life long adventures.

Ever since i earned my license i have been thinking to share this news will all of you. I finally i found some time between studying for commercial first check stage exam and writing a report on plane accident from NTSB to share this exciting news with you. Thank you RIPA for your support. Erika
